

Dilemma Analysis

Small Group Work

- 1) Share all dilemmas (please take turns)
- 2) Apply all 4 paradigms to each dilemma:
 - Justice versus Mercy
 - Individual versus Community
 - Long-term versus Short-term
 - Truth versus Loyalty
- 3) Use attached outline as guide for analyzing all dilemmas
- 4) Please don't share resolutions...yet

Roles

Facilitator:

- Reminds participants to apply each of the 4 paradigms to each story after it is heard
- Reminds participants to follow outline

Timekeeper:

- Informs group about remaining time

PLEASE DO NOT RESOLVE YOUR DILEMMAS AT THIS TIME

Adapted from the Institute for Global Ethics, Ethical Fitness® Seminar. Used by permission.

Dilemma Analysis Outline

Actor (whose dilemma is this?):

Context/Facts (setting for the dilemma):

The dilemma:

It is right, on the one hand, to _____ because _____

It is right, on the other hand, to _____
because _____

Paradigms (analyze each dilemma using paradigms to determine which one(s) apply):

Justice versus Mercy:

It is right, on the one hand, to _____
because _____

It is right, on the other hand, to _____
because _____

Individual versus Community:

It is right, on the one hand, to _____
because _____

It is right, on the other hand, to _____
because _____

Long-term versus Short-term:

It is right, on the one hand, to _____
because _____

It is right, on the other hand, to _____
because _____

Truth versus Loyalty:

It is right, on the one hand, to _____
because _____

It is right, on the other hand, to _____ because _____